

Woman jumps out of sister's Flat with baby

A mother jumped to her death whilst clutching her baby boy to her chest off her sisters third floor flat, by Emma.

A mother leaped to her death with her baby son, killing them both. She jumped out of her sisters flat which was on the third floor. Because her benefits had stopped while she was pregnant.

The Mother was aged thirty two, she was staying at the flat with her sister with her 5-month old son kayjah. Christele Pardo was from France, and had been claiming jobseekers allowance after leaving London Metropolitan university in may last year after studying Philosophy for four years.

Christele became pregnant around about the same time and was told in December that because she was within eleven weeks of pregnancy she was not allowed to claim her allowance because she was considered unable to work.

Ms Pardo was advised to apply for income support, but her bid got rejected. Her housing benefit was also suspended. Ms Pardo also got applied to take the DWP to a tribunal date. She reputedly phoned asking for a tribunal date.

Ms Pardo's sister, Olya Pardo said " We talked sister to sister and she told me she was upset because she felt she didn't exist"

© National News and Pictures

This is where Ms Pardo jumped

Man shot dead for £10,000

Today at 03:06 am a man was shot dead

Khurram Ashraf, aged thirty, was shot dead at 03:06. He was shot in the stomach outside Global Forex in Stamford road, Longsight. He died seven hours later in hospital. The gunman was with a group of friends, not only did he take the £10,000 pounds but he also took Mr Ashraf's laptop.

Also twenty year old man from Longsight has also been arrested on suspicion of murder.

The police cornered off where the shooting had taken place, a police helicopter was involved for searching for the attacker. Mr Ashraf was with his two friends, Mr Waqas, the other one did not want to be named. A shop keeper saw what happened and said " A man came out from the business Park and put the gun into Mr Waqas, a small pistol, into his stomach he had the bag of money"

Mr Waqas threw the money to Khurram, the killer hit Mr Waqas with the butt of the gun round the face. Khurram resisted the man with the gun and that's why he shot him.

SCHOOL REPORT

