John and Edward sign a contract with Louis Walsh saying "I will take care of there career !"

John and Edward from x-factor has gone of, but that doesn't mean good-bye. Louis has done a contract saying he will take care of there career and will make lots of money and some for himself. The boys will also be broadcasting with a company called Global Group.

'I'm delighted that I'll be able to continue to work with the pair. We're looking into music as well as TV deals but at this stage it is too early to give any exact details,' Walsh added.

Susan Boyle has beaten lady gaga and Rihanna at the American records, called I dreamed a dream. Released on November the 24 2008.

West Lothian's Provost Tom Kerr said: "We would like to add our best wishes for the next stage of the competition. Susan has clearly wowed the audience, the judges and the world with a truly fantastic performance. Now tributes from across the globe are flooding in, including from Hollywood star Demi Moore. And with millions of hits on You Tube Susan has put Blackburn, West Lothian, firmly on the map." Her album became the most best selling debut in UK chart history selling 410,000 copies on the first week.
