Drogba scores after coming off the bench

On Wednesday night Chelsea took on Blackburn for the quarter-finals of the Carling Cup.

The first half was great for Blackburn, as Kalinic scored at 9' which was a simple tap in. The score at half time was 1-0 to Blackburn.

At half time Carlo Ancelloti made all his sub-changes, taking off Belleti, J.Cole and Deco and replacing them with Drogba, Kakuta and Bruma.

The second half was more eventful. Chelsea levelled the score by a goal from Didier Drogba just after coming onto the pitch 2' ago. Then Solomon Kalou scored at 52' giving Chelsea the lead.

Blackburn wouldn't take that so Emerton, for Blackburn, scored at 64' giving them the equaliser.

At full time the score was 2-2 so making the match go into extra time. At the start of period one extra time a penalty was given to Blackburn as substitute, David Hoilett, was brought down in front of the referee. There was no mistaking that Benni McCarthy was going to miss a spot kick.

At the end of period two extra time, two mins was added. Within those two minutes Ferreira scored the crucial equaliser for Chelsea sending this match to a penalty shoot-out.

The shoot-out ended up with Blackburn coming out top. They won 4-3 on penalties with Paul Robinson making two spot saves. Blackburn Rovers held their nerves and its paid off as they secure a place in the last four.
